

Supporting Students with Disabilities for Success in Postsecondary Education

Wednesday, April 16, 2008

Post Pacific Rim Conference on Disabilities
Sheraton Waikiki, Honolulu, Hawai'i
9:00am to 4:00pm

Purpose:

Provide professional development activities related to postsecondary education, for attendees across a range of skill levels and abilities.

Who should attend:

Persons associated with postsecondary education including instructional and support faculty, disability support personnel, high school personnel, administrators, persons with disabilities, and family members of persons with disabilities.

Agenda:

9:00 - 9:30 Introductions & Overview
9:30 - 11:00 Universal Design for Learning & Instruction
11:00 - 11:30 Overview of Hidden Disabilities
11:30 - 12:30 Student Panel
12:30 - 1:30 Complimentary Lunch
1:30 - 3:30 Assistive Technology Lab & Hands on Exploration
3:30 - 4:00 Conclusion

Participants must be registered.
$25.00 Registration Fee

To register by mail please contact:

Velina Sugiyama
Center on Disability Studies
1776 University Avenue, UA4-6,
Honolulu, HI 96822
ph: 808 956-5688
fax: 808 956-7878
email: Velina@hawaii.edu.

Funded in part by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Postsecondary Education.