

THE CENTER FOR TEACHING
EXCELLENCE
& THE
CENTER ON DISABILITY STUDIES

Mondays, October 2,
9, 16, 23, and 30
11:30-1:00 pm
Kuykendall 106
Events Room and Gallery

The Center for Teaching Excellence and The Center on Disability Studies present

TEACHING ALL STUDENTS, REACHING ALL
LEARNERS: INNOVATIVE WAYS TO ADDRESS
DISABILITY AND DIVERSITY IN THE UNIVERSITY CLASSROOM

The Fall 2006 workshop series includes:

October 2: "Disability, Diversity and Civil Rights: Getting to Know All of your Students"

October 9: "How Difficult Can this Be?" Understanding your Students with Learning Disabilities

October 16: Getting Akamai with Assistive Technology Inside and Outside the Classroom

October 23: Universal Design as Innovative and Effective Tool to Reach and Teach All Students

October 30: Student Roundtable: Hear Our Stories

LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED!

The workshops are organized as a series: we strongly suggest you attend all five. Faculty who attend a minimum of four workshops will receive a certificate from the CTE, co-sponsored by the UHM Ombuds Office and the Center on Disability Studies, to include into your personnel files as evidence of professional training. Please register so that we can provide lunch for you.

For more information and for a detailed outline of each workshop please contact:

Katharina Heyer

Email: heyera@hawaii.edu

Please register on line at:

<http://www.cte.hawaii.edu/OnlineReg.html>

Center for Teaching Excellence

Phone 956-6978

Website: <http://www.cte.hawaii.edu>