

THE CENTER FOR TEACHING
EXCELLENCE
&
CENTER ON DISABILITY STUDIES

Kuykendall 106
Events Room and Gallery

The Center for Teaching Excellence and The Center on Disability Studies present

SUMMER LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE ON DISABILITY AND DIVERSITY

WHAT: A dynamic three day leadership institute focused on improving access to postsecondary education for students with disabilities and other diverse learners. The innovative program will include noted speakers, films, group discussion, and group/individual projects. The 15 applicants who are selected to attend will receive compensation in the form of a partial summer overload to total $1,000.

WHEN: Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday,
July 29th, 30th, 31st 2008
9:30am - 3:30pm

WHERE: UH Mānoa Kuykendall 106
Events Room and Gallery

WHO SHOULD APPLY: UH faculty, department chairs, Deans, other administrators or personnel who are interested in taking a leadership role in the development of policy and teaching strategies related to postsecondary access for students with disabilities and other diverse learners.

Application Deadline: May 23rd, 2008

How To Apply: Please submit the application online at:
<http://www.cte.hawaii.edu/OnlineReg.html>

For more information please contact Velina Sugiyama,
Center on Disability Studies, UA 4-6, Honolulu, HI 96822
Email velina@hawaii.edu
Phone: 808-956-5688; Fax: 808-956-7878